CONDITIONS OF SALE

14 November, 2026

1. Ownership title passes on the fall of the auctioneer's gavel. Auctioneer is Rich Penn Auctions DBA Rich Penn & Associates, and/or F.A.M.E. There-after, the property is at the sole risk of the buyer. Neither the seller nor the auctioneers shall be responsible for loss or any damage to any article due to theft, fire, breakage or any other cause whatsoever, how ever occasioned. If an article sold cannot be delivered by reason of theft, breakage, or other damage prior to check-out, the sale shall be deemed canceled without any liability on the part of the auction company.

2. All property is sold As Is-Where Is and neither we nor the consignor make any guarantees, warranties or representations, expressed or implied, in regard to the property or the correctness of the brochure or other description of the authenticity of authorship, physical condition, size, quality, rarity, importance, provenance, exhibitions, literature or historic relevance of the property or otherwise. No statement anywhere, whether oral or written, shall be deemed such a guarantee, warranty or representation.

We and the consignor make no representation or warranty as to whether the purchaser acquires any reproduction rights in the property.

Prospective bidders, or their agents, should inspect the property before bidding to determine its condition, size and whether or not it has been restored. Catalog descriptions include condition information where possible. If you have any questions regarding lots, contact the auction company prior to the auction. If you have questions on specific lots, since most pieces are packed for shipping to the auction site, call between Tuesday and Thursday of auction week, lots will be unpacked then. If you are unsure about a lot, for any reason, DO NOT BID. No items may be returned for any reason.

3. All lots are subject to a buyer's premium, in house is 21% with credit card, 18% with cash or approved check. Online bidders are subject to a 23% buyer's premium.

4. All bids to be per lot as numbered at the sale site unless otherwise mentioned by the auctioneer.

5. Bidders are required to register prior to the beginning of the sale. Registration will require two forms of identification, a valid drivers license or other photo ID and a valid credit card.

Should you plan to spend over $10,000 on a lot, a Bank Letter of Credit must accompany your registration, or be submitted to Rich Penn Auctions 5 days prior to auction date.

Bidding on any Gold Star Lots, identified in the lead of the catalog description as a "Gold Star Lot" (expecting to sell for over $10,000), will require your Bank Letter of Credit with guaranteed funds in the amount you may expect to bid.

You are required to use the number issued to you when identifying as the successful bidder. Online bidders MUST complete registration with our preferred online host, LiveAuctioneers. Register early to make certain you're approved to bid.

Online bidders must provide a credit card at registration. All approved bidders will be registered with a bid limit of $10,000. Should you plan to place bids over that $10,000, refer to the Letter of Credit information above. Unless other payment arrangements are made, purchases will automatically be posted to that card within 24 hours from auction close. If credit cards are used, no charge-backs are allowed for any reason. Links to online bidding platforms are at www.richpennauctions.com.

6. Full payment of each purchaser's account must be received at the end of the auction sale or upon check-out. Terms are cash or credit card payment (Unless other arrangements have been made with the auction company) within 24 hours of auction close.

7. The highest bidder will be declared the buyer. In all cases of a disputed bid the lot shall be resold, but the auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims. His decision is final.

8. All merchandise purchased on site must be packed, transported and/or removed by the purchaser at his own risk immediately after the close of the sale, unless other arrangements have been made for storage and shipping. If any employee or agent of Rich Penn Auctions shall pack or transport the merchandise, it is fully at the risk, responsibility and expense of the purchaser, and Rich Penn Auctions shall not be held liable for any loss, damage or other dispute that may be caused by said agent or employee. All items not removed after close of sale will be moved and stored by Rich Penn Auctions or their agents. Fees, rates and any insurance will be charged accordingly to the purchaser. If you fail to make storage or shipping arrangements or to pick up your merchandise within 30 days, you forfeit the merchandise to the auction company.

9. This is a privately owned and operated auction. We reserve the right to refuse admittance to any person, or eject from the auction site anyone creating a disturbance or selling or attempting to sell their own merchandise.

10. Bidding on merchandise automatically constitutes agreement with these provisions.
